- During the course of hearing of the case that the revision petitioners submitted their arguments as per their grounds in revision petition and on verification of the written arguments, documents and the grounds of revision and Para wise remarks as well as the other documents and material available on the record it is noticed that lower authority observed that the respondent in the appeal before it failed to produce any document in support of her claim of possession of the land prior to the coming into force of the regulations and on that the appeal is allowed setting aside the orders of lower authority.
- It is observed that as seen from the record that the revision petitioners produced several documents in support of their case and it is observed that the schedule land had first got transferred on 28-06-1911 from another non-tribal to Pasam Subbamma the great grandmother of the respondent in the appeal and in the settlement register in the name of the grandfather of the respondent in the appeal Pasam Swamy recorded as pattadar to the schedule land and that the transaction prior to commencement of regulation and that not hit by regulation and further that earlier the Special Deputy Collector in a case way back in the years 1980s in LTRP No.324/1975 filed against Yettam Ganga Raju who is no other than the husband of the respondent in appeal concluded that there is no contravention of the regulation and the same is final in view of no appeal against the said orders of him.

- That as seen from the earlier order and the documents it can be concluded that there is no violation of regulation and not hit by regulation.
- That taking consideration of the above and the material available on the record that it can be concluded that the lower appellant authority failed to observe the above as such the same is not sustainable under law accordingly the same is set-aside by confirming the order of the lower authority.
